Holland Case Appeal Before Supreme Court

Decision is Expected Early
In October

Edgar V. Holland, convicted last winter of first degree murder in the death of his wife, whose headless body was found with the decapitated remains of her mother in the Lake of the Ozarks near Camden, Mo., took his appeal before the Missouri supreme court today.

Holland was convicted in Pettis county circuit court of slaying his wife, Mrs. Mollie Holland. A charge of first degree murder is also pending in the death of his wife's mother, Mrs. Pearl Fairfax. He has not been tried on that charge.

The mutilated bodies of the two women were discovered on the lake shore April 16 and 17, 1944. For a month police officers investigated the area for some clue as to the women's identities and for a lead as to their slayer.

Holland was arrested May 20, 1944, a week after the bodies had been identified as those of his wife and mother-in-law. The 44-year-old ex-convict said he didn't report the two women as missing during the month because they frequently took extensive trips without telling him.

The court en banc heard Holland's attorneys today, together with evidence compiled by the state. A decision is expected to be handed down during the first week in October.

Two Sons Home At Same Time

It was a wonderful day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Gardner, 628 East Twelfth street, recently when their son, James D. Gardner, radioman 1/c, U. S. Navy, arrived home in the morning and their son, Sgt. Thomas L. Gardner, who has been overseas with the 7th Army in Germany, came in unexpectedly that evening. The two boys had not seen each other for three years.

Sgt. Gardner is on a thirty-two day furlough and was in Germany a year, participating in several major battles. He will go, at the end of his furlough to Jefferson Barracks and he expects to be sent to the Pacific area.

James D. Gardner has returned to duty on the USS Lake Champlain, in the Atlantic. They are grandsons of Mrs. F. Gardner, 901 North Engineer avenue. Mrs. Gardner has seven grandsons in service, four in the navy and three in the army.

Bridges on Record
For Six-Hour Day
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Harry Bridges, leader of the CIO International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, was on record today for a six-hour work day.

"The ten and twelve hour day of the war period cannot continue—there isn't enough work," he declared from the reviewing stand at the close of a Labor day parade in which 30,000 of the CIO marched.

"And there is not enough work in the land," he said, "to continue the eight-hour day. We are asking for the six-hour day."

U. S. O. Dance
The first Saturday night dance of the season, sponsored by the U. S. O., will be held at Sacred Heart school this week.

Rules People Of Japan are Asked to Keep

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The Japanese Domei agency in a broadcast recorded today by the federal communications commission acknowledged "comparatively strict military discipline" among military forces, but charged the Americans with "six cases of brutality, 38 cases of looting, and other unlawful conduct."

The Domei report, entirely lacking in confirmation in any quarter, also carried this suggestive series of rules which it said the home ministry had asked the people to observe in an effort to minimize such "incidents."

1. Lock doors.
2. Women, wear clothing conservatively.
3. Avoid traveling at night—women especially.
4. If someone is breaking into your home scream.

5. As to resisting attackers, one should bite, scratch—and tear off insignia for evidence.
6. Neighborhood associations should cooperate to guard against such incidents.
7. If you have become a victim, prove it to proper authorities.
8. Don't display watches, fountain pens or other valuables.

By Clare E. Hoffman

ALLEGAN, Mich., Sept. 3 —An editorial in the Saturday Evening Post of August 11 justly complains of the "reckless responsibility" of certain radio commentators; then refers to one it charges with having made a misstatement with reference to the Post. Hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of patriotic Americans, who have no knowledge of the merits of the Post's controversy with the named radio commentator, who, in the opinion of many of us, expresses sound American views and is usually accurate in his news broadcasts, agree that radio commentators and columnists have exercised an influence (which they are rapidly losing) out of all proportion to the degree of authority they possess, the responsibility they should assume.

A few columnists, several broadcasters who also write columns — and Mr. Pearson happens to be one of them—deceive the people, not only by pretending to give as advance, exclusive information news which has already appeared, or shortly will appear, in dispatches of the AP, UP, INS or some local publication, but also by deliberately or ignorantly misstating the facts — and are at times downright vicious in their unfair comment on the actions of public officials.

Depraved Columnists
Some people realize that this conduct may on occasion be due to personal animosity, a depraved nature, but more often the result of an overpowering greed, an unscrupulous desire and search for the Almighty dollar, as well as for the publicity which may be turned into money.

Although assuming it, neither columnists nor news commentators have any authority from the

LADY NEARLY CHOKED WHILE LYING IN BED— DUE TO STOMACH GAS

One lady said a few days ago that she used to be afraid to go to bed at night. She was swollen with stomach gas, which always got worse when she went to bed, and the gas would rise up in her throat after she lay down and would nearly choke her. She couldn't lie flat. Had to prop herself up on pillows. Recently this lady got ERB-HELP and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly. ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! commentators have a far greater audience, a wider opportunity, than senators or congressmen, the people's chosen representatives. They have it within their power to mold the thought and the action of millions of Americans.

They and their sponsors, until the public becomes fully aware of their motives and their methods, of their purpose and their program, may be able to influence legislation which will vitally affect our national life, the permanency of the republic.

The present responsibility which rests upon them is far greater than that which rests upon either the executive or the legislative departments of our government. As you, Mr. Pearson, have so often pointed out to the congress and to the individual members of both branches their duty, permit me most respectfully to suggest that you, if you have one, consult with your conscience and hereafter follow a course, adopt a policy, that will promote the best interests of our country and its people.

NOTE — Since Congressman Hoffman ran a little short of the required length for Drew Pearson's column, we take the liberty of quoting from another statement the congressman made about Pearson as printed in the Congressional Record of March 14, 1945, at which time apparently he had a different idea regarding Pearson's reportorial accuracy:

"I recall not long ago when the Republicans had a conference, much of the proceedings that took place at the conference were reported by Mr. Drew Pearson. We wondered whether it was some Republican who was at the proceedings or whether it was some house employee who was listening in. I would like to know who is listening in on the conferences and sessions."

Hearts Bleed Longest

by Doris Hume © 1945, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Brock offers to release Thayer from their marriage. Heartbroken, Thayer recalls their early love. For a moment, Brock's bitter reserve breaks down—then the dinner ring sounds and the moment is lost.

VI
THAYER managed the lipstick and went downstairs as the gong sounded the second time, already planning her words. "Ready?" she'd say to Brock. "Mmm! Smell dinner?" He could get out of the chair; she wouldn't help him. "Nobody cooks like Emma, except maybe Miss Mary. Remember the chicken salad—and the eight biscuits?" They'd go to the dining room together.

His mother was in his room, helping him, petting him. "Oh—there you are," she said to Thayer, smiling gently.

"I went to freshen up. . . . Thayer stopped short. Why should the necessity of explanation be laid upon her? "Ready, Brock?" she asked, but the tone lacked all she had intended to convey.

"No—over here," Mrs. Kittridge said as they went into the hall. "It's so far to the dining room. I had Emma lay the table in the sitting room by the fire. It's cozy and easier for you, dear." Her eyes caressed her son.

"Now, Mother, I. . . . " "Let me be happy doing little things," she said. "I've been so lonely with no one to do for. You'll never know, my dearest." Thayer felt herself stiffening. She had the feeling so often here in this house, of being present, yet excluded.

The sitting room was Mrs. Kittridge's sanctum, of her possessions. Never was Thayer invited to this room, though often coming in from the plant she had heard Mrs. Kittridge and Moya laughing in here together. Now, on Brock's first night home, his mother had cleverly drawn him into the one place in the house peculiarly hers.

"We've had little suppers in here so often," she reminded him. "Brock, remember? . . . "

THAYER tried to act natural, but mostly she was conscious of one thing—Brock's eyes were again avoiding hers.

At long last, the meal over, they again accompanied Brock to his room. He paused in the doorway. "I don't need any help," he said. "I can manage alone." Thayer knew that he was excluding her. Mrs. Kittridge made no opposition. "Just as you wish, dear, though I'm sure—either of us. . . . She kissed him tenderly. "Good night, son." Then she shook her finger coyly. "You're still my little boy, though; I shall come and call after a while just to be sure you're all right, the way I used to."

"Good night, Mom," Brock said. "It's—well being back." He hesitated.

Thayer looked steadily at her mother-in-law. For an instant their glances locked, then the older woman said with a little laugh, "Well, I must see Emma about breakfast." Her heels tapped briskly down the hall.

Thayer and Brock were facing each other again, but the wall was up between them. "Brock, if I can. . . . " "I'll manage, Thayer. I—I'm used to it." She said gently, "Then good night, Brock," and was stabbed by the relief in his eyes. She raised her lips for his kiss. It was anticlimactic.

She turned and went down the hall. Ahead the long polished stair seemed a symbol of all that separated her and Brock. She went up as she heard Mrs. Kittridge's returning feet, not looking back, her head high, but her heart sick within her.

BROCK sat on the sunny terrace in a low chair. He would have liked to throw himself full length upon the grass, but he hesitated. Should someone come, a ridiculous

NOW FOR THE TELEPHONE JOB AT HOME

The big war telephone job is nearly done. Now we can turn to the big telephone job here at home—the job of reconvertng and constructing for peacetime telephone service.

We have a long way to go to catch up with the demand for telephone service. More than 240,000 people are waiting for us to furnish them telephones. Serving them will require millions of dollars' worth of new equipment. Poles must be set. Wires must be strung. Miles of cables must be laid. Switchboards and dial equipment must be made and installed.

Big jobs—complicated jobs—take time. But telephone factories are turning as rapidly as possible from war to peacetime production. Telephone people are eager for the job of putting new equipment to work. And soon, we hope, other skilled telephone men and women will be returning from the armed forces to help with the task.

Some of the 240,000 who are waiting for telephones will get service soon. For others, especially in cities where telephone facilities must be expanded, the wait may still be many months. As new equipment can be installed those who are waiting will be served in their proper order.

You may be sure that all our efforts are aimed at making the wait just as short as possible. We're working as hard to that end as we worked to supply the armed forces with vital communications equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Winnberg, 1115 West Sixth street, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday with open house during the afternoon between the hours of 4:00 and 6:00 o'clock. One hundred sixty-five friends called during the afternoon.

The home was decorated throughout with marigolds, chrysanthemums and other flowers in the golden shades, gifts of friends. The lace covered dining table was centered with an attractive arrangement of flowers in the same shade.

Standing with Mr. and Mrs. Winnberg to welcome their guests were their daughter, Mrs. Thelma Cook and their granddaughter, Nancy Cook.

Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. J. M. Hinman, Mrs. W. O. Harris, Mrs. Arthur McGowan, Mrs. C. R. Campbell, Mrs. S. E. Bushey, Mrs. H. C. Salveter, Mrs. Heber U. Hunt, Mrs. George Dugan, Mrs. Lawrence Geiger, Miss Ida Cruzan and Miss Janet Fleming of Moberly.

A unique feature of the day was a display of pictures taken about the time of their marriage. In the center was a picture of the bride and a picture of the bridegroom, pictures of her mother and father, his mother and father, the minister who married them, the house in which they were married and their first home.

Guests from out-of-town were Mr. Winnberg's sister, Mrs. David Axene and Mr. Axene and Mrs. Henry Holgrin, Mr. Holgrin and Miss Ruth Holgrin, who surprised them by driving down from Kansas City for the day, and Miss Janet Fleming of Moberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnberg, who are members of the Calvary Episcopal church, attended services Sunday morning and received the blessing of Bishop Robert Nelson Spencer of Kansas City, as they stood at the altar to receive Communion.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnberg were married in Springfield, Mo., September 2, 1895. Mrs. Winnberg was the former Miss Caroline Hoover. In 1912 they came to Sedalia to reside and have since made their home here. Mr. Winnberg was division foreman for the Missouri Pacific railroad until his retirement six years ago.

Press Women At SAAF Dinner

Members of the Missouri Women's Press club were dinner guests at the Sedalia Army Air Field Sunday noon. Mrs. Charles Schuttler, of Jefferson City, retiring president of the club presided, introducing Miss Elizabeth Iol, editor of the Cass County Democrat, the incoming president. Mrs. Schuttler, who is editor of the Missouri Farm Bureau News, Jefferson City, also introduced two speakers. They were Lieut. Rose Leibbrand, of SAAF, who told of personal experiences with the Japanese people during the period she was engaged in newspaper work in China, and H. R. Long, of Columbia, manager of the Missouri Press Association, who recently spent a month in England, and who told of the newspapers of that country, particularly of those in rural areas.

After the dinner Lieut. Noel L. Thomas, public relations officer at SAAF, conducted the members and guests on a tour of the base.

Attending from Sedalia were Miss Hazel Palmer, a guest and Miss Rosemary Burrows, of the Sedalia Democrat news staff, a member of the club.

Kuhlman is With the Santa Fe Division

WITH THE 35TH INFANTRY DIVISION, ASSEMBLY AREA COMMAND, FRANCE—Pfc. Ernest R. Kuhlman is en route home from Europe with a 5-Star "Santa Fe" Division, which in ten months battled across the Elbe river to within 42 miles of Berlin.

The 55th ended its occupational duties in Germany during the second week of July and moved to Camp Norfolk, one of the Assembly Area Command's 17 redeployment camps near Reims. Elements of the Division served as Honor Guards for President Truman when he arrived at Antwerp.

Hitting Omaha Beach July 7, 1944, the 55th forced the Germans from St. Lo, broke the counter-offensive at Mortain, swept across France, cracked into Germany's Saar Valley on December 12, and then whipped into Belgium and Luxembourg to wither Von Rundstedt's Ardennes bulge.

Following a shift to the Vosges Mountains, the Division dashed 300 miles north through Holland to jump the Roer and Rhine rivers, crush Siegfried Line defenses, and scoop up more than 30,000 PW's by V-E Day, to mark the end of over 1,600 combat miles in the ETO.

Pfc. Kuhlman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kuhlman, 921 East Thirteenth street, Sedalia, Mo.

He holds the following decorations: Good Conduct Medal, ETO ribbon with five battle stars.

Legion Elects A.G. 'Gus' Bass Commander

Pass Resolutions For Welfare of Service Men

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—(P)—The Missouri American Legion broke a five-year tradition in advancing A. C. (Gus) Bass of Warrensburg from finance officer to the state commander's post and turned the attention of its Labor day convention program to a consideration of veterans aid measures for World War II servicemen.

Bass was elected commander succeeding A. D. (Bud) Welsh of St. Louis after L. I. Morris of Lexington, senior vice commander and normally entitled to the advancement, withdrew shortly after the start of yesterday's 27th annual departmental meeting.

Bass had been finance officer for 15 years.

Giving notice of their intention to waste no time in setting up a veterans aid program for Missouri, the 900 delegates applauded the legislative committee's declaration to urge immediate passage by the state legislature of house bill 256.

Veterans Commission

The bill, passed by the house and now in senate committee, sets up a veterans' commission to coordinate soldiers' relations with the various agencies with which they will have to deal.

The welfare of service men also was reflected in resolutions seeking expansion of veterans hospitals at Excelsior Springs and at Jefferson Barracks, location of a proposed neuropsychiatric hospital in Missouri (Cape Girardeau and Hannibal are under consideration by the veterans administration as possible sites) and the proposals affecting veterans' dependency claims and peace time vocational and educational privileges.

Another resolution requested that the state legislature override Governor Donnelly's veto on senate bills 113 and 157. Passed during the spring session of the legislature, the bills would have transferred title to the Confederate veterans home near Higginsville to the federal government allegedly for use as a world war veterans hospital and moved the one veteran an dme veterans widows to a new residence in Higginsville.

Plan Next Convention

Delegates voted to hold a three-day state convention in 1946 an d to nominate retiring state commander Welsh for the post of national commander.

Other officers elected:

Adrian Bushman, Clayton, senior vice commander; Dr. J. E. Baird of Excelsior Springs, Frank Ferguson of Iberia, Pete Miravalle of St. Louis, Walter Braswell of Nevada and Robert Sweeney of Kansas City, department vice commanders; Louis B. McGee of Kansas City, finance officer; Perry Hurlbert, Joplin, historian; Rev. W. L. Ebert, St. Louis, chaplain; Nat Dunn, St. Louis, re-elected sergeant at arms; Ray Roberts, Farmington, judge advocate.

Auxiliary Officers:

Mrs. L. V. Price, Warrensburg, president; Mrs. Carl A. Johnson, Kansas City, first vice-president; Mrs. Fred L. Brewer, Perryville, second vice-president; Miss Patricia Nacy, Jefferson City, treasurer; Mrs. Fred W. Chambers, Kansas City, secretary; Mrs. O. A. Meador, Carthage, historian; Mrs. James E. Mecum, Kansas City, national committeewoman.

Attending from Sedalia were Ray Hunt, J. H. Brooks, Otis Howe, Lacey Howe, Frank Piper, S. J. Timboreous and Arthur Brill.

OBITUARIES

Joseph J. Stober

Joseph Jay Stober, who would have been seventy-three years old on September 2, died Saturday, September 1, at the home of his son, C. H. Stober, 1007 East Forty-second street in Kansas City.

Mr. Stober was born September 2, 1872, at Harrisburg, Pa. He was married to Florence Oliver and most of their married life was spent on their farm on Route 3, with the exception of the fifteen years in Kansas City, where he was employed with the public service.

Mr. Stober recently underwent an operation for glandular trouble.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Florence Stober of Sedalia, two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Zahm, of Sandusky, O., Mrs. Lena Sims, Jefferson City, two sons, L. R. Stober and C. H. Stober of Kansas City, two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Batdorf of Austin, Texas, Mrs. Cora Harbin, Elko, Nev., two brothers, Harry Stober of Lincoln and George Stober of Sedalia and five grandchildren, Miss Jewell Stober, Eugene Stober, Kenneth Stober and Pfc. Robert Stober, all of Kansas City and Mrs. Betty Roderick of Jefferson City.

A grandson, Pfc. Jay Stober, was killed in action in Germany in June.

Services were held at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon at Newcomer's funeral home in Kansas City.

Ben J. Robben

Ben J. Robben, 59 years old, whose wife was the former Miss Lou Evans of Sedalia, died at his home on Green Berry road in Jefferson City Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Robben was for more than thirty years head of the stock room in the secretary of state's office. He had complained of pains in his shoulders and back for several days but continued his work as usual. He arrived home earlier that afternoon because he and his wife planned to attend the secretary of state's office picnic at McClung park. He said, however, that the pains in his back had been more violent than usual and submitted to heat ray treatment. His wife left him for a short time and when she returned he suffered the attack.

A lifelong resident of Jefferson City, where he was born March 23, 1886, to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robben, the well known stock clerk was educated in St. Peter's school. Shortly after leaving the school he was employed in the stockroom of the Tribune and later the Hugh Stephens' printing company. His knowledge of paper attracted the secretary of state's office and he was appointed head of the paper department under the late Cornelius Roach, remaining there under succeeding administrations regardless of politics. He was a lifelong member of St. Peter's church.

Surviving are his wife, Lou Evans Robben, to whom he was married eleven years ago, one daughter Jane, a sister Mrs. Mayme Meyers and a brother, George Robben. A brother Herman Robben died of heart trouble less than four months ago.

Funeral services were held from St. Peter's church at 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning and burial was in Resurrection cemetery.

Sisters and brothers of Mrs. Robben from out-of-town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, Mrs. J. R. Horner, Mrs. Nina Fall, Mrs. Dora Meier and Ralph Fall, all of Sedalia; John Evans of Springfield, Mo., Mrs. Frank Behen of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Evans of Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. Ellen Terrell Service

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen Terrell, who died at her home near Green Ridge Saturday morning, were held at the McGee Chapel Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Ralph Emerson Hurd officiated. Mrs. Ray McGraw and Miss Margaret Edwards sang, "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" and "Abide With Me" accompanied by Mrs. H. O. Foraker. Guy Hurd sang a solo, "Death Is Only A Dream".

Friends who served as pallbearers were H. H. Humes, August Mergen, Forest Helman, W. P. Tucker, George Hurd and Earl Eakins.

Interment was in the Terrell family lot in the McGee Chapel cemetery.

Those who were here to attend the services from a distance were Billy Terrell, son, Roseand, Louisiana, Mrs. Pearl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wilton, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilken, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Mandeville, all of East St. Louis, Ill., Mrs. Esther Farrar, Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. James Newell, East St. Louis, Ill.

Split Victories Over Holidays For Merchants

3-7 Sunday But Win
Monday from SAAF

Bus Walker, who is none on a furlough pitched the Sedalia Merchants to a 3 to 2 decision over the S. A. F. Wings team from the air base Monday afternoon on the Liberty park diamond.

Windsor was scheduled to play this game but they cancelled the game Sunday evening and Manager Nichols secured the Wings to fill the date and as a result it was one of the best games of the season.

Walker, stocky righthander, worked a fine game and was only in trouble in one inning that the sixth when the Wings scored two runs to tie the score. He allowed but five hits and struck out 18 batters.

His opponent "Big Bill" Paul who relied on a terrific fast ball was hit for 12 safe blows but was able to bear down in the pinches and strike out 10 of the Merchants.

The Merchants scored their first run in the fourth inning when Salty Shoemaker led off with a triple into right center field, and Light singled into right field scored Shoemaker. The added another tally in the fifth when Shirley doubled into right and Williams singled into right center field to score Shirley. The visitors tied the score in their half of the sixth and it remained tied until the last half of the ninth.

Walker opened the ninth by fanning, Light hit a hard grounder to shortstop who made a nice stop of the ball then threw wild to first, Light taking second, Livengood grounded out, Light went to third and "Gabby" Ellsworth hit a hard drive into right center which hit the right center field fence and Light scored to win the game.

The Wings gave their pitcher some brilliant support and was the first defeat of the season for this fast service club. The Merchants played errorless ball behind their pitcher and Light at second turned in several nice plays on difficult ground balls.

For the Merchants Gus Shirley led the hitters with three safe blows while Ellsworth also collected three including the drive which won the game which would have went for a triple. It was a fine game and as a result the same to teams will play again next Sunday at Liberty Park in order that the fans who missed Monday's game will be given an opportunity to see these two teams play again.

With the third baseball milestone, Labor day, now a matter of record, the Tigers face the discouraging prospect of carrying their pennant drive into some body else's back yard. Be it New York, Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland or some other enemy park, the Bengals' schedule calls for 28 more games and only four at home.

While Detroit tours the country, New York will be playing 26 of its remaining 29 contests in the friendly stadium where they have been able to look the part of a contending club. nal games in the east during the next two weeks.

Ever since Charley Keller rejoined the Yanks they have found the old spark, recovering from a dizzy nine-game losing slump to cop 5 of their last 20 and move within 4½ lengths of the top. They're still fourth behind Washington and St. Louis, but they figure to be plenty tough at home with the fragrant scent of a world series slice drifting through the September air.

The Tigers picked up a full length yesterday by squeezing past Chicago twice by an identical 6-5 score. Tommy Bridges, making his first appearance since 1943 after his discharge from the army, received credit for the first game with the relief help of Geo. Caster. Jim Tobin clinched the second with a two-run homer and an effective job of pitching after the Sox had chased Al Benton with four runs in the opening inning.

The largest crowd of the year at Briggs stadium, 53,953, paced the holiday major league total of 265,336 paying customers.

Washington lost ground in its two-month chase of the leaders, by dropping the second of a holiday double to Boston, 8-4, under the spell of Vic Johnson after knocking out Dave (Boo) Ferriss in an 11-5 opening romp.

Charles Keller, Nick Etten and George Stinewiss unloaded a barrage of extra base hits on Philadelphia as the Yanks swept two, 4-1 and 7-6 in 11 innings. Etten's double with the bases loaded broke a 1-all tie to give Floyd Bevens his 13th victory in the first. Keller contributed a double, triple and homer and Stinewiss two doubles and two three-baggers in the finale.

St. Louis whipped Cleveland twice, 6-3 and 5-4 in 10 frames to further complicate the Tribe's difficult uphill struggle. Heading east for 19 games they trail by seven. Bob Muncie, leading pitcher, earned his 11th in the first and Rookie Al Lamachia of Toledo took the nightcap on relief. The Browns are only 3½ lengths back of Detroit.

Chicago beat the Cincinnati Reds, for the 19th time in 20 starts, 7-2 and 7-1 before 43,161. Paul Derringer coasted home in the opener after Andy Pafko unloaded a grand slam homer and Hy Vandenberg saved the second when he came to the rescue of Hank Wyse who was tagged for three straight singles with nobody out in the opening session.

Pittsburgh dropped St. Louis four full games behind the leading Cubs by handing the Cardinals a double dose of disappointment 6-5 and 6-2. Both Ted Wilks and Blix Donnelly failed to last two innings as the Buccos unloaded a total of five round trippers.

The New York Giants hit the million mark in home attendance for the first time (1,008,750 paid) when they knocked off the Phillies 3-2 and 9-0, on a pair of neat pitching jobs by Harry Feldman and Sal Maglie.

A fist fight between Ed Stanky of the Dodgers and Dick Culler of the Braves enlivened proceedings at Ebbets Field where the Brooklyn Dodgers took two from Boston 4-0 and 4-3. Lefty Tom Seals went all the way in the first tilt and received credit for the finale on a 10th inning relief chore.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—(AP)—Does anybody remember baseball's July Fourth tradition? Here it is past Labor day and nobody knows for sure how those major league pennant races will come out, what with the Tigers and Browns starting an eastern swing, where they may be way-laid by the Yanks and Senators within the next few days, and five Cubs-Cards tussles coming up later.

Experience

Only the abundant experience gained through 86 years of continuous brewing plus constant devotion to the Goetz fine brewing principles could produce a beer of the supreme quality and exquisite flavor so distinctive of Goetz Country Club Pilsener Beer. Only "know how" born of three generations of Goetz family brewing could bring forth a beer that is so unsurpassed in fully aged mellowness, excellence of character and real beer flavor. Into the brewing and ageing of every drop goes all this accumulation of knowledge and practiced skill . . . to make it the "Pilsener of Perfection." Always ask for Goetz Country Club Pilsener Beer.

New Poultry House Made Mostly Of Concrete Blocks

A summer and a winter of testing have put the seal of approval on a new poultry house made chiefly of concrete blocks. Such blocks and also cinder blocks are among the more readily available building materials in most places. Developed by the College of Agriculture at the University of Missouri, this house is dry and comfortable in both winter and summer, and is easily kept.

Its general plan is similar to that of the multiple-unit Missouri type house. With less maintenance and painting expense, the long-time cost of this probably will average less than a frame one.

This laying house of 20x20 feet, has a 2-inch concrete floor, straw loft with ventilating doors, hinged dropping pits, and nests attached to the walls. It has an open front, a window in each side, and one in the back. Wire netting covers these openings and during the summer the window sash are stored in the straw loft.

The temperature in the building during summer months ranged several degrees cooler than other structures without the straw loft and ventilating area. The temperature of the laying house on hot days was reduced considerably by keeping the door in each side of the loft open and allowing the air to sweep through.

A bill of material for this house can be obtained by writing the University of Missouri College of Agriculture, Columbia, Missouri.

Indirect Assistance

Barnacles helped the Allies. These crustaceans collect on all ships, but Axis vessels being forced to remain more constantly at sea, were unable to have them removed, and a barnacle-in-crusted hull lowers a craft's efficiency.

The Story of the Atom

(1) Before August 5, 1945, most people who had heard about the great energy stored in atoms thought the idea the merest theory. But on that date, the vast power of the atom was demonstrated. An atomic bomb, the explosive content of which weighed only a few pounds, was dropped on the Japanese base city Hiroshima, from an American plane. The army base was blown into a cloud of smoke, dust and rubble, rising 40,000 feet.

(2) People the world over were agast as scientists estimated the power of the atomic bomb. The power in one pound of explosive was equivalent to 15,000 tons of TNT, enough to fill four trains of 75 cars. The atoms in the bomb contained a potential power equivalent to that produced by nearly all the hydro-electric plants in the United States, running for one hour, or approximately 10,000,000 kilowatt hours.

(3) People realized at once that the atomic bomb could be a great source of evil. A small enemy plane, stealing through the overcast with a few pounds of bombs, could wipe out such great cities as New York or Chicago. A few tons could submerge such an island as Japan. A heavy enough bomb might cause an earthquake or some other great world-wide disaster.

(4) Other people, more hopeful and optimistic, saw the force inside the atom becoming a great power for good. Under proper control, it could unshackle man forever from the chains of hard labor. A pound could drive a great liner many times across the world's oceans. Just a few grams would keep an automobile running the entire life of the car. Less than a gram could easily send an airplane around the world without stopping to refuel.

Tomorrow: The Secret of Atomic Power.

From Evil to Necessity.

Smoke, once considered a necessary evil by an attacking force, since it gave away its position, now is being made in ever increasing quantities for use in screening troop, ship, and air-plane movements.
